THE FINNISH SAUNA

Temperature: 60 °C - 110 °C

Humidity: up to 15 %

Built from cedar wood containing aromatic oils known for healing and cleansing properties, the Finnish Sauna is designed to boost the immune system, promote health, improve flexibility and reduce stress.

The sauna utilizes high dry heat to promote perspiration while very low humidity levels keep temperatures tolerable and enjoyable, causing no discomfort. Natural essential oils of Cedarwood are used to intensify the aroma of the wood, aid detoxification, clear the sinuses and lungs, and help relieve water retention.

A complete sauna session can vary from 30 to 60 minutes, including entering, exiting, cooling down, resting and refreshment. The body may lose a large amount of liquid and minerals, which must be replaced during and immediately following sauna sessions by drinking plenty of water.

In addition, we recommend a cool, refreshing Rain Shower or applying smooth ice chips from the Ice Fountain during or after your sauna session to build your heat tolerance and enhance your relaxation. One can use the sauna in a bathing suit, in disposable undergarments provided by the spa, or in a towel.

For elderly persons, persons with heart and blood pressure conditions, pregnant women, and children: Medical advice should be sought before using the sauna. Pregnant women should not use the Sauna, Hydro-Massage Pool or Steam Chambers.

We recommend:

- Begin with a shower
- Enter the sauna and sit on the bench atop your towel
- Sit and allow the heat to permeate your body and open the pores of the skin
- After 5 to 7 minutes (listen to your senses), exit the sauna and take a refreshing shower
- After cooling down, re-enter the sauna and try to stay a bit longer, 5 to 10 minutes (as long as you feel comfortable)
- Step out to the spa garden and/or take another cooling shower, or apply ice from the Ice Fountain to cool your body
- You may go back to the sauna a few times if you wish, taking your time to relax and enjoy the warmth
- While in the sauna, you may adjust the air moisture by throwing water on the stones on the heater. The steam will make the room feel hotter for a short period.
- Following the sauna session, take a final shower, dry properly and allow yourself to cool down on the outdoor daybed in the spa garden. Wear your bathrobe or your towel while cooling down.
- Drink plenty of water to restore hydration
- Take your time to rest & relax - savour the comforting benefits of your Finnish Sauna session

THE ICE FOUNTAIN

Temperature: 3 °C - 5 °C

Humidity: 10 %

An alternative approach to the cold plunge pool, the contemporary Ice Fountain produces crushed ice for cooling the body after a hot sauna or steam bath. Smooth crushed ice creates a tingling sensation when applied to the skin, providing an overall invigorating and uplifting feeling.

Part of the hot and cold water therapies, the Ice Fountain helps to relieve stress, alleviate fatigue, stimulate blood circulation and the lymphatic system, and strengthen the immune system. This unique cold water feature also works to purify and tighten the skin, promoting a smooth and toned appearance.

We recommend:

- Rub crushed ice chips with hands onto the skin after use of the Steam Chamber or the Sauna
- Repeat as desired over the whole body
- Dry properly and relax atop your towel on the Heated Wave Loungers in the Wet Lounge
- Take your time to rest & relax - savour the exhilarating and invigorating sensations of the Ice Fountain

THE HEATED WAVE LOUNGERS

Temperature: 33 °C - 38 °C

Developed exclusively for Remède Spa at the St. Regis Hotel, Singapore with the help of a physiotherapist, the natural stone Heated Wave Loungers are ergonomically designed to provide ultimate comfort and relaxation. The Loungers feature an infrared heating system that warms the body in the same manner as natural healing sunlight, penetrating the skin to ease joints and muscle pain, stimulate the metabolism and improve the body's natural regenerative process. Guests can control their Lounger heating zones to ensure each area of the body benefits from the appropriate and desired level of warmth.

Reclining on the Heated Wave Loungers before a massage helps relax your body and mind, loosening muscles to enable your spa therapist to provide a more thorough and effective massage. Combined with the cold water facilities at the spa, the warm Loungers help to release toxins, boost the immune system, and increase blood circulation and energy.

The recommended Lounger temperature for achieving the expected benefits is 38 degrees Celsius – one degree above than the normal temperature of the body.

We recommend:

- Begin with a shower
- Dry off slightly and recline atop your towel on the Lounger
- Use the Loungers prior to or following any of your treatments
- Avoid using the Lounger immediately after another heat facility such as the Finnish Sauna, Hydro Massage Pool or the Steam Chambers
- Cool off using the Rain Shower or Ice Fountain, or outdoor garden day bed for a few minutes
- Drink plenty of water to restore hydration
- Take your time to rest & relax - savour the comforting benefits of the Heated Wave Loungers

THE STEAM CHAMBERS

Temperature: 45 °C - 55 °C

Humidity: 85 to 100 %

The Steam Chambers feature three steam baths, each providing a different temperature ranging from mild (45 °C) to high heat (55 °C). The three chamber design allows you to progressively adapt to higher heat, realizing optimal detoxification and relaxation.

The high humidity provides an extremely relaxing climate and an overall feeling of well-being. The combination of heat and humidity increases blood circulation, enhances the respiratory system, helps eliminate the skin's toxins, improves skin hydration and texture, alleviates fatigue, relieves mental stress and relaxes muscle tension.

To support and enhance the steam bath benefits, we diffuse 100% natural essential oils of fir needles and eucalyptus, two plants with powerful purifying properties. The fresh woody, earthy and sweet characteristics of fir needles help to reduce anxiety and stress, while cool and refreshing eucalyptus clears the mind and spirit.

The third chamber of the Steam Chambers features the warmest steam bath and offers a fountain of cool running water to refresh you as needed. Splashing your face with the cool water, taking a rejuvenating Rain Shower or refreshing yourself with ice from the Ice Fountain during and after your steam session help complete your hot and cold water therapy experience.

Avoid using the steam chambers after eating, as the heat effect on blood circulation can interfere with digestion.

Drink plenty of water prior to, during and following your steam bath to restore fluids lost while using the facilities.

One can use the steam bath in a bathing suit, in disposable undergarments provided by the spa, or in a towel.

For elderly persons, persons with heart and blood pressure conditions, pregnant women, and children: Medical advice should be sought before using the Steam Chambers. Reduce exposure time to heat and allow greater times to rest between hot and cold water therapies. Pregnant women should not use the Sauna, Hydro-Massage Pool or Steam Chambers.

THE STEAM CHAMBERS

Temperature: 45 °C - 55 °C

Humidity: 85 to 100 %

We recommend:

- Begin with a shower
- Enter the first Steam Chamber, sit back on a bench atop your towel and allow the heat permeate your body and open the pores
- After 6 - 10 minutes (listen to your senses), step out of the steam chamber and take a lukewarm to cold shower
- After cooling down, enter the second chamber for an additional 5 - 10 minutes (as long as you feel comfortable)
- Step out to take another cooling shower or use ice from the Ice Fountain to cool down
- Enter the third chamber if you feel comfortable. There, when needed, you can cool off with water from the cool fountain
- You may go directly to the third chamber if you wish
- Repeat the hot/cold cycle 2 to 3 times, each time going deeper from one chamber to the next
- Following the steam bath session, take a final shower, dry properly and allow yourself to cool down on the outdoor daybed in the spa garden, either in your bathrobe or wrapped in your towel
- Drink plenty of water to restore hydration
- Take your time to rest & relax - savour the comforting and rejuvenating benefits of your steam bath session

RAIN SHOWER

Temperature: 30 °C to 35 °C

The Rain Shower is a modern interpretation of the traditional ice shower that follows a steam bath or sauna session. Powered by air, the Rain Shower provides a powerful yet comfortable waterfall for a most refreshing experience.

Select a soft and gentle setting to feel pampered and caressed or accelerate the setting for a stimulating and energizing effect. We recommend setting the water temperature at slightly warmer degrees (30° – 35° C) to create a more enjoyable ritual.

Combined with any of the therapies available in the Wet Lounge, the Rain Shower helps strengthen the immune system and provide an overall feeling of wellbeing.

We recommend:

- Take a Rain Shower at a tepid temperature after the steam bath or sauna
- After showering, rest on the warm heated Wave Loungers or on the daybed in the outdoor garden
- Drink plenty of water to restore hydration
- Take your time to rest & relax - savour the relaxing and delightful benefits of your Rain Shower

HYDRO-MASSAGE POOL

Temperature: 36 °C -37°C - 39 °C

The Hydro-Massage Pool is a whirlpool with underwater jets that fosters relaxation while bathing. Pressurized water jets are strategically located to massage the upper back, middle back, lower back and lower legs, relieving tension and stress throughout the body.

Immersion in the warm pool bath helps to relax joints and muscles, stimulate blood circulation, and re-hydrate the surface layer of skin, resulting in an improved state of overall wellbeing.

For elderly persons, persons with heart and blood pressure conditions, pregnant women, and children: Medical advice should be sought before using the Hydro-Massage Pool. Pregnant women should not use the Sauna, Hydro-Massage Pool or Steam Chambers.

We recommend:

- Shower prior to entering the Hydro-Massage Pool
- Sit against the water jets
- Soak in the warm pool for a maximum of 10 to 20 minutes
- Relax in the pool before going to sleep or after a long trip to help alleviate tension, relax the body, recover from jetlag and prepare the body for a deep relaxing night of sleep
- Use the whirlpool before or after a workout or playing sports to help alleviate tired muscles and reduce muscle pain
- After your pool session, rest on the warm heated loungers alongside the pool to cool down and relax
- Following the pool session, shower, dry properly and allow yourself to cool down on the outdoor daybed in the spa garden. Wear your bathrobe or your towel while cooling down.
- Drink plenty of water to restore hydration
- Take your time to rest & relax - savour the relaxing and delightful benefits of your Hydro-Massage bath
